Your feedback is particularly important to our commitment to ongoing improvement.

Throughout your training you will be asked to provide your thoughts and comments on the training received.

Built Form Design Academy encourages all Participants to make contact should they wish to provide feedback or comments on any aspect of the service received.

Assessment

Assessments have been designed to progressively build on knowledge and skills and emulate tasks you would be asked to perform in the workplace.

Students are required to complete all assessments in a Learning Module in consecutive order. Students will not be able to progress to later Learning Modules without successfully completing all assessments for their current module.

Competency Based Assessment

Competency based assessment is the type of assessing that allows us to determine a student's competency in a particular task based on their ability to apply the knowledge they have learnt and the skills required to complete work activities to the standard that is expected in the workplace.

Students complete a unit of competency when the tasks can be performed to a competent level.

Competency is an ongoing process of continually adding to your knowledge for a particular task or skill. For this reason, your ability to perform a task will increase as you work through to the more complex projects. It is for this reason that you are required to complete all of Project A units prior to moving through to Project B and then C.

If you are unable to demonstrate your ability in any of the assessments you can be reassessed. Reassessment may involve, redoing the whole assessment, or redoing a part of the assessment that focuses on a particular skill which requires more work.

Students can submit up to a total of three (3) attempts of an assessment, without further payment being required. If a student is unable to demonstrate competency after the three (3) submissions, they should speak with their trainer to determine how to move forward with that unit.

Notes Regarding Assessments

1. Students must keep a copy of all work submitted
2. All assessments are to be submitted online by uploading/ submitting on the online campus The HUB. No submissions will be accepted through email or mail.

Feedback

Students will receive feedback on assessment activities within five (5) working days (one week) of uploading the assessment.

Plagiarism

Although we encourage students to discuss assessments with other students the submitted assignments must be your own work.

Plagiarism is where you present another person's work as if it was your own. Plagiarism is considered cheating and is a serious offence. If you are found to have plagiarised you could find yourself excluded from a particular unit or from the course.

If you have any doubts about including information that may be considered plagiarised it is always best to discuss this with your trainer prior to submitting the work.

Some of the activities that can be considered plagiarism include:

1. Presenting another student's work as your own
2. Handing in work that is very similar to or copied from another student

Copyright / Intellectual Property

Breach of copyright and intellectual property occurs when you use the work of others and do not make attribution of their work. In effect you are passing off someone else's work as your own.

Websites, blogs, textbooks, newspapers, magazines, drawings, photographs, etc. are all subject to copyright and intellectual property and a failure to attribute these sources of information to their original authors is regarded as plagiarism.

BFDA requires students to acknowledge all sources of information utilised in assessments.

These acknowledgements should be in the form of 'in text references' and 'reference lists' utilising The Harvard system of referencing. There are numerous guides to Harvard Referencing online.
